RESOLUTIONS Within Doors,

In the VOTES of the H— of C—

Martis 5 die Febr. 1711.

Resolved,

THAT no Nation, no, not a petty Conquer'd Province, was ever treated with more Contempt, or more infamously Bubbl'd and Abus'd, than Great-Britain has been by its Al——s, especially the D——b.

Resolved,

That such abominable Corruptions cannot be parallel'd in any History, from the Creation of the World, to this Day.

Resolved,

That those of Great-Britain, who acted those Corruptions, or even suffer'd them, when it was in their Power to prevent them, are Tr——rs to their Q——, Betr——rs and Sellers of their C——try; and ought to be H——g'd, Dr——n, and Qu——r'd, as such.

Resolved,

That an Humble Ad—fs from the Gentlemen Without Doors be Presented to the Gentlemen Within Doors, Desiring them to bring in a B—ll for the more easie Recovery of Money which the Publick has been Robb'd of; and for the Preventing of such Robberies for the future.

Resolved,

That the H— of C— which Discovers and Exposes these Plundrings of the Publick, is the Best H— of C— that ever fate in Great-Britain; And that these Loyal Subjects and Worthy Patriots, deserve to be (as They actually are) the Darling of their Qu— and Country.
